

The illustration depicts a complex maze of blue water channels with white wavy borders. The maze is set in a vibrant landscape with green hills, small houses with brown roofs, and various trees. A pink parrot is perched on a narrow bridge within the maze. In the lower part of the maze, there is a small island with a red treasure chest and the word 'Sfârșit' (End) written on it. A small boat with a bottle is also visible in the water. The overall style is whimsical and child-friendly.
